Get a Clue

This month's meeting subject.

Are strange creatures afoot in South Central Pennsylvania?

Rick Fisher, President of the Paranormal Society of Pennsylvania and Curator of the future National Museum of Mysteries & Research Center, has been collecting bizarre stories for decades.

Pennsylvania was once vast wilderness occupied only by sparse groups of Native Indians. While White men settled and their population boomed--animals went into hiding or moved to more isolated areas. Could there be strange creatures that live among us who are only spotted by chance circumstances leaving behind a bewildered observer?

Rick's presentation will curl your toes and have you on the alert the next time you find yourself alone in a deserted area, keeping your eyes peeled for bizarre creatures that may be in our midsts.

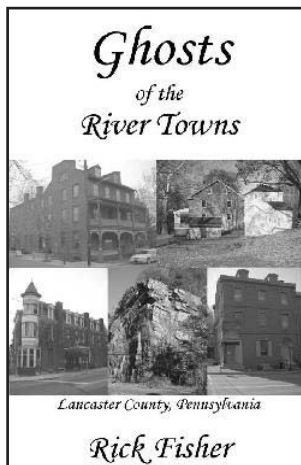

Our guest speaker, Rick Fisher, at Chickies Rock.
