

Things to do in the Autumn

Pick your own pumpkins at a local farm

Take a country hayride

Build a fire and roast hot dogs & marshmallows and make s'mores

Carve pumpkins

Rake an huge pile of leaves and jump into them

Bake an apple pie--from scratch

Have an outdoor autumn picnic

Visit local haunted and historical venues

Pick your own apples at a neighborhood orchard

Lurk in peaceful, interesting, old graveyards

Enjoy the challenge of a corn maze

Have a tailgate party (even if there isn't a game)

Go on a hike to a state park and enjoy the splendor of autumn colors

Travel the Pennsylvania Dutch Hex Highway for great views of bright leaves and hex signs

Build a scary (or adorable) scarecrow

Cheer on your local football team at a Friday night game

Two words: Hot Chocolate

Make homemade apple butter

Celebrate by attending an area fall festival

Visit a haunted house attraction

Take a nearby town's ghost walk

Plan and throw an autumn party

Clip a white sheet over the clothesline and show an outdoor movie for friends

Decorate your porch with lighted autumn leaf garlands, pumpkins, gourds & crows

Snuggle in a blanket on the patio with a mug of tea and a good book

Make popcorn and hot chocolate and watch scary movies by candlelight

Place potted mums inside hollowed pumpkins

Wear your coziest sweater or sweatshirt

Gather fall leaves, nuts, berries & acorns and create a table centerpiece

Bake soft molasses cookies

Bright Ideas

From the Susquehanna Mysteries Alliance