

Susquehanna Mysteries Alliance

Meeting Dates & Topics 2012

January 25 ☠ 7:00 p.m.

Curses! Foiled Again!

Do you believe in curses or that items or humans can be cursed?

Join us in exploring this bizarre topic as we discuss the many items and people throughout history that were believed to be hexed by supernatural powers!

February 22 ☠ 7:00 p.m.

The Robin Hood of Pennsylvania-- Davey "Robber" Lewis

Lewis was the scourge of the Cumberland Valley in the early 1700s. He was handsome, clever and a "gentleman" robber with many adventures and misadventures to his credit. Learn more about this interesting, historical character with guest speaker, Mark Podvia.

March 28 ☠ 7:00 p.m.

The Vengeful Djinn

Who are the Djinn and what do they want? The Djinn are among us and their agenda is frightening! Join us for guest speaker, Queen of the Paranormal, Rosemary Ellen Guiley as she presents absorbing info from her book, The Vengeful Djinn. Her books will be available for purchase.

April 25 ☠ 7:00 p.m.

Final Thoughts: Eternal Beauty in Stone And a History of Cemeteries

John will read from his book, Final Thoughts, and talk about his history and style of photography, cemeteries preservation and the human condition. And Melissa Telesha will talk about local graveyards and give a history of cemeteries.

John's book will be available for purchase

May 23 ☠ 7:00 p.m.

And Hell Followed With It ... Histories & Hauntings of American Tragedies

We guarantee you will be riveted by these heart-breaking, yet fascinating stories of America's not-so-distant past tragedies and the hauntings that followed. Guest speaker Rene Kruse co-wrote two books regarding the subject.

Her books will be available for purchase.

June 27 ☠ 7:00 p.m.

Victorian Spiritualism

Adherents of spiritualistic movements believe that the spirits of the dead survive mortal life, and that sentient beings from "spiritual worlds," can and do communicate with the living. No other era has dealt with death more extravagantly as the Victorians. Learn about the beliefs and practices during the height of spiritualism in the late 1800s.

The Susquehanna Mysteries Alliance meets the fourth Wednesday of each month from 7-9 p.m. at the Mechanicsburg Mystery Bookshop at 6 Clouser Road (Corner of Trindle & Clouser) in Mechanicsburg.

You may register for meetings by calling the bookshop at 795-7470 or e-mailing mysterybooks@comcast.net. Please be sure to register as to prepare proper seating for everyone. The public is welcome!

There is a $2 per person admission fee and light refreshments are served.

SEATING IS LIMITED!
Sign up early to ensure your seat!